“ When Jamie and I stayed with her folks last it seemed like she was always cooking. When she wasn't cooking she was researching. Not afraid of life or much else, she never let anybody but her have the last word on what was best for her family. Hence the researching and cooking. When she did the leave the house with us she enjoyed second hand stores. This passion we both shared and we spent many hours just wandering and looking and waiting to find that one thing we just had to have lol. She was well loved and will be well missed. Rest in Peace Mama Gail...
