

Alice Katherine Hossfeld

June 25, 1940 - September 13, 2020

Alice Katherine Hossfeld passed away Sunday, September 13, 2020 in Fairbanks Memorial Hospital. She was born Tuesday, June 25, 1940 in Helena, Montana to Fred and Anne (O'Rourke) Hossfeld. Her mother passed away when Alice was two years old and Alice was raised in Great Falls, Montana by her aunt and uncle, Ralph and Peg Knight.

She attended schools in Great Falls and later attended Montana State University in Bozeman, Montana where she was a member of the Newman Club and where she earned her bachelor's degree.

Alice had a long career as the County Extension Agent working in Poplar, Hardin and Butte, Montana before relocating to Fairbanks where she ultimately retired. She had many close friends and was a longtime and active member of the Immaculate Conception Parish in Fairbanks. She never married. Alice was a kind and loving soul and took wonderful care of her countless pets throughout her life. She had a wonderful sense of humor as evidenced by her big genuine laugh.

Alice is preceded in death by her parents Fred and Anne, her brothers and sisters, Mary Hossfeld, Robert Hossfeld, Patrick Hossfeld, James and Nina Hossfeld, Wayne McFarlane and Fred and Loretta Hossfeld. She is survived by her sister, JoAnne McFarlane of Helena, Montana and several nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place in Fairbanks and interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery in Helena, Montana. Due to COVID 19 funeral services will be conducted at a later date. Memorials in memory of Alice may be made to the Immaculate Conception Parish in Fairbanks or to the animal shelter of your choice.
