

Amy Virginia Mathews

April 12, 1991 - January 13, 2022

Amy Virginia Mathews passed away Thursday, January 13, 2022. She was born Friday, April 12, 1991 and raised in Lompoc, CA where she grew up as a little beach-bum, adventurer that was always involved in sports and outdoor activities. She was always a woman with many passions including traveling, trail running, hiking, camping, baking, reading, drawing, attending live music and anything that involved connecting with mother nature. But her number one passion was being the best mother she could possibly be which she seemed to do so, so effortlessly. Amy is survived by her son, Mason, her husband, Roger, her parents, Bob and Sharon Blewis, her sister, Kelly Breen, and Roger's parents, Roger G. and Sandy Mathews. Cremation has taken place and no local services are planned. Express condolences at www.wayrynen-richards.com. Anyone that crossed Amy's path is a better person because of it. She had an infectious heart that drew everyone to her with such love. This world will forever be brighter because you were in it, my Amy. I Love You.

Tribute Wall

GL

“ My heart is hurting for the Mathews family ... I didn't have the pleasure of spending very much time with Mrs Amy but I loved her and I loved her so much more because of the way she loved and cared for my only Nephew .. Rog and their precious baby Mason who knew the world rose and set in his Mother.. you will always be remembered as a Great Mother and Wife But also as an outdoor enthusiast who loved her life.. and made it all work! we will all miss you Amy.. till we meet again 🙏

Gayla Lee - January 21, 2022 at 04:42 PM

GL

I envied her spunk, her style ,her adventurousness and her Fearlessness.. an awesome lady 🙏

Gayla Lee - January 21, 2022 at 06:17 PM