

Beatrice Ida Bjorgum

November 29, 1930 - February 27, 2020

Beatrice Ida Bjorgum passed away peacefully Thursday evening, February 27, 2020 at her home in Butte. She was born in Butte Saturday, November 29, 1930 to Charles and Beatrice (Button) Case. Bea attended Butte Schools and worked in several places in Butte including Orv's Bakery, Eddy's Bakery and as a waitress and bartender at the M&M Bar and the Speedway Bar in Butte and The Sunset Lodge, Island Park Lodge and Phillip's Lodge in Island Park, Idaho. She was a member of the Garden Club and Pioneer's Club here in Butte and attended many ARCO Retirees functions with her husband.

She married Harold Clark here in Butte and following his death married Harold Bjorgum also in Butte. Along with both her husbands, she is preceded in death by her daughter, Gayle Evans, three sons, Charles, Ron and Raymond Clark and four grandchildren, Cory Clark, Jake Clark, Charles Clark and Terry Clark.

Bea is survived by her daughter and son Carolyn and Pat Brebrick of Silver Star, Grandchildren, Jared Brebrick, Nicole Brebrick, Amanda Clark, Hap Clark, and Calvert Evans. Also surviving are 6 great-grandchildren, her brother and sisters-in-law, Melvin and Bev Case of Bute and Sheila Schumacher of Whitehall as well as several nieces and nephews including Donna Conlan of Butte.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services celebrating her life will be conducted later in the Spring and will be announced.