

Bernice Zirene Hamilton

June 7, 1937 - November 22, 2019

Bernice (Ramer) Hamilton left this Earth after a short illness to be with her Lord on Friday, November 22, 2019 at Peace Hospice in Great Falls, Montana. Bernice was born Monday, June 7, 1937 in Deer Lodge, Montana to Joseph H. and Lois (Fudge) Ramer. Her parents settled in Sheridan, Montana in 1949 where Mrs. Ramer taught school before retiring. Bernice graduated high school in 1955 and worked at many jobs before marriage. She and R.B. "Bill" Hamilton were married on November 9, 1965 in Salmon, Idaho and Bernice was a stay at home wife and mother after that.

During her life, Bernice faced numerous health challenges and was wheelchair bound for many years due to MS and sarcoidosis. For over 60 years she kept her focus on the Lord and He helped her to deal with the rocky road that was her path; as she often said, "Don't worry, God is in control". Her faith helped her get out of the wheelchair and onto quad canes, then later a walker. She was fiercely independent and strongly believed in not letting her handicap, handicap her! Besides being active in her church and an avid Christian, she enjoyed crocheting, playing all sorts of games, reading and various hobbies. She resided the last 5 years in the Great Falls Eagle's Manor retirement home where she was active with various committees and loved working to make the community better. She will be missed by all who knew her but she has gone on to a better place.

She was preceded in death by her husband R.B. "Bill" Hamilton on August 20, 2005 as well as her parents and all three of her brothers and sisters-in-law.

Survivors include her son and daughter-in-law, Donald and Deanna Hamilton, daughters and son-in-law, Barbara and Bruce Peterson and Patricia Hamilton, eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.
