

Betty Mae Hall

July 4, 1940 - October 28, 2016

Betty Mae Hall passed away early Friday morning in St. James Healthcare. She was born in Prestonsburg, Kentucky on Thursday, July 4, 1940 to Noah and Ella Hall. Her mother passed away when she was very young, and Betty learned the meaning of hard work at a very young age. She married and had six children, later divorced and moved to Butte in 1979 where she worked as a cook in several area restaurants. She worked as the prep cook at Lydia's Supper Club for many years and Woodland Good Samaritan Nursing home in Minnesota before retiring. Betty was a hard working mother who managed to raise six children without ever having a driver's license.

She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Julius and Wendy Hall of Butte, Timothy and Vonda Hall of Brainerd, Minnesota, Rick Hall and Steve Hall, daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Martin Grendahl of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, sister Billie June and Richard Gouchneur of Ashtabula, Ohio, niece Darlene and Jeff Beckett of Butte, and several nieces and nephews. Also surviving are several grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by father Noah Hall, mother Ella Hall, brother Arnold Hall, sisters Sharlene Osborne and Joan Daniels, and daughter Doris Hall.

Tribute Wall

AH

“ Betty was my grandmother, i am Andrew Lanny Hall. i remember her spoiling me with candy and whatever toy i wanted, i went to her house almost everyday, i remember one time we went to a store and she bought me a tricycle, i was overwhelmed with joy, i miss her a lot everyday i wish i got more time to spend with her. i saw this site well in class and decided to post this message.

Andrew Lanny Hall - December 16, 2022 at 03:00 PM

“ I remember when I was a child. I looked forward to visiting her. I also remember a certain gas tank and sugar adventure.... You will always have a place in my heart. Your niece, Marie

Marie Rapose - November 06, 2016 at 04:05 PM