“ I can't even start with all the memories I have of Bill but one of the ones that stands out in my memory is when our dog was ran over on Blue Sky Hwy about 2 years ago. We lived 2 houses down from Bill. I immediately ran down to Bill's and without a thought he put his shoes and helped my husband pick our dog off the road and took him up the hill behind our house and buried him. That was the type of person Bill was. So caring and helpful. He was always there for us to talk to and vice versa. I got Bill tickets to his first Green Bay Packer home game and I remember when they came in the mail his eyes and face lit up. I was born and raised in Wisconsin and a Packer fan but I think Bill was an even bigger fan!!! We spent most Packer games swearing at the TV and jumping up and down. I will miss him so much I can't even express it in words. He was such a good man and they say "the good die young". I will never forget him. Rest in peace my friend. You were one of the best people I have ever known!!! Love your friend, Jodi
