

Carole Brown

September 27, 1938 - April 2, 2016

Carole Evans Brown, 77, died April 2 at her home in Tucson, AZ, ending a long battle with cancer.

She was born in Butte Sept. 27, 1938, the only child of Emerson and Ivy Evans.

Carole graduated from McKinley School in 1953, from Butte High School in 1957 and from the University of Montana with a degree in sociology in 1961. That same year she and Ray Brown were married in the Presbyterian Church in Butte.

The couple lived in Logan, UT, for many years before retiring to Tucson. She was a service representative for JC Penney in Logan for 28 years.

During retirement, Carole loved playing cards, dominoes and other games with her friends.

Survivors include her husband Ray and sons and daughters-in-law, David and Heidi Brown of Bend, OR, and Scott and Khristina of Salt Lake City, UT, and four grandchildren, Shannon, Kevin, Alex and Evan.

Memorials may be made to the Butte Food Bank, 1019 E. Second St., or to a charity of the donor's choice.
