IN LOVING MEMORY

OF

CHRISTINE BARBARA STUART, 85

December 11, 1939 -- January 11, 2025

Christine Barbara Stuart passed away on Saturday, January 11th, 2025 at home with family. She was born in Berlin, Germany on Monday, December 11th, 1939 to Margaret Promnitz and George Stender. As a very young girl during World War Two, she lost her father George in the Battle of The Bulge. Christine is a true survivor as her and her mother had to escape into a bomb shelter, then hid under a carriage truck to get across the border or they most likely wouldn't have survived.

Christine worked in the banking industry as a bookkeeper in her younger years. She also worked with children, but mainly was a devoted stay at home house wife. She married the love of her life, Robert G. Stuart on May 11th, 1963 in South Orange, New Jersey. They moved out west in the late sixties where they raised their three children. Christine enjoyed singing, reading, and writing. She would always go out of her way to help others before herself.

She is survived by her daughter, Gail Stuart and sons, Scott Stuart and Drew Stuart. She is also survived by her daughter-in-law, Aaryn Stuart, granddaughter, Shyanne Stuart.

Christine was truly one of a kind and we will never forget her kind sense of humor. God Bless Mom! We Love you!

Cremation has taken place.
