*My loved brother,
If only I had known the pain and suffering you must have felt to take your own life. If only I had remained closer.
I will always love you, I will always have a hole in my heart that was meant for you to fill while riding with me and talking with me about our messed up pasts. We shared many secrets that only two crazy guys like us could share, mainly because we're so much alike. I'll miss you deeply friend. I will remember you every day and o will never forget what an awesome, kind, caring and loving friend you was. See you in Heaven Bro. Rod Jaques*
