“ Daisy was a very stylish, incredible woman. She kept the First Christians Church going, filling in when there was no pastor. Her sermons were wonderful and she was a wonderful minister and a true Disciple of Christ. She will be missed. Blessings to her family and Godspeed to join Al and her son in heaven, Daisy.

Fondly,
Sharon and Corum Cunningham

“ Daisy was friend of ours. We attended the Butte First Christian Church when we lived in Butte. She was a mainstay of the church working many hours on church business. We also knew her through her work with Eastern Star. Linda was a past matron and I was past Patron. She had many friends and we were lucky to be counted among them. We are sorry to hear about her passing.
