

Diana Burke Hadley

September 26, 1937 - November 20, 2023

Diana Burke Hadley passed away Monday, November 20, 2023 in St. James Healthcare in Butte. She was born in San Diego, California Sunday, September 27, 1937 to Edmund H. and Maxine (Crawford) Burke. Diana's father was a Navy veteran therefore Diana was educated in many different places, including Florida, Panama, Hawaii and California. She attended beauty college in Medford, Oregon.

Diana married Orval Hadley on March 2, 1957 in Imperial Beach, California and together they made their home in San Diego, El Cento, CA, Corvallis, Oregon, Medford, Oregon, Salt Lake City, Washington D.C. and finally settled in Butte in 1988. Diana worked in several communities as a receptionist in veteran's offices and as a sales clerk for several years.

She enjoyed traveling and served as a senior volunteer here in Butte. She was also a member of The Red Hat Society.

Survivors include her husband, Orval Hadley of Butte, son, Ed Hadley of Newport, Oregon, grandchildren, Corey and Jamey Shelton and four great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her daughter, Anna Hadley and a sister, Margie Smith.

Cremation has taken place. No local services are planned and her cremated remains will be scattered in Oregon.