“ I met Doris when we were visiting our mothers at the Nursing home. Doris was a sweet and gentle person, and always kind. I am sad that she has left us, but she will have a better and pain-free life where she is united with her family. After my Mom passed she gave me one of her precious own ceramic Christmas deer. - I know one of her neighbors across the alley and he always spoke in admiration of Doris' and her family's garden I will remember Doris and her Mom fondly.
