“ I lived next door to the Killoy family on West Copper Street for over 20 years. During that period of time, I got to know the Killoy family quite well. I especially remember Ed since I was just two years younger than him. Over the years I had grown apart from Ed and his family; however, I still recall and cherish our relationship of times long past.

On behalf of myself and my wife, Marie, I wish to express our most sincere and deepest sorrow at Ed's passing. May he rest in peace.
God Bless!!
