

Fred Louis Bugni

December 18, 1952 - May 17, 2016

Fred Louis Bugni passed away early Tuesday morning, May 17, 2016 at his home west of Whitehall after a long struggle with multiple sclerosis. He was born in Butte, December 18, 1952 to Charles and Arline (Pecora) Bugni. He attended St. John's Grade School and Butte High School. Fred will be remembered by many for all his years of service to the people of Butte at the M&M Bar, and by many more as the drummer for several rock bands around Butte in the 1970s, 80s, and 90s, including Snowblind. He loved music, and playing the drums – now you can drum on, Fred! He also loved the outdoors, especially hunting with his family in the Blacktail.

Fred is preceded in death by his father, Charlie Bugni, and step-father, Guy George. He is survived by his mother, Arline George of Butte; brothers and sisters, Maria Dalbec of Helena, John Bugni of Billings; Dennis (Mary) Bugni, Dawn Bugni, and C. J. Bugni, all of Butte; and Teri Bugni. Also surviving are several aunts and uncles including Fran Corcoran of Butte and Rose (Tony) Petrarca of Seattle; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews; family relative Barb Bugni; and his dear friend, Angie Milsap. A sincere thanks goes to all of his caregivers who tended to Fred for so long, especially Angie and Leesa.

“ Condolences to Arline, John, Maria and all the Bugni family. I was fortunate enough to meet and become good friends with Fred in 3rd grade and in the 6th grade we formed our first band, one of many. Fred was always such a generous and kind person with a great personality. I will always have fond memories of Fred and all the fun times we had together.
