

Gary L. "Tiny" Roberson

March 2, 1946 - August 4, 2018

Tiny (Gary) Roberson rode on August 4th, 2018 to his next adventure – War hero-husband-Father-brother, uncle and grandfather, he lived a full, no holds barred life. He made many friends, comrades and brothers along the way. While many miles of physical distance, his thoughts and love for his kids and grandkids was very apparent in his daily comments along with his best friend and soulmate Kookie. Gary was a Vietnam Veteran, where he was awarded a Bronze Star with V device, which denotes heroism and is the fourth highest military decoration for valor. Gary (Tiny) was preceded in death by his parents--Leo and Ann Roberson, sister Gail Roberson Burnsed, and son Matt Roberson. Tiny is survived by his wife, and best friend Kookie Roberson, children-- Adam (Peggy), Harley (Wendy), Holly, Tony (Ramona). Siblings: Cindy (Rich), Clark, Randy (Jeanine), and many nephews, nieces, and grandchildren who were all equally afraid of him upon first meeting but soon learned he was a really big cuddle bear for the little ones. Tiny was a proud member of the Cossacks Motorcycle Club for over 40 years.

“ Prayers for comfort and peace to all. I have fond memories of Gary and Randy from school in Bismarck. Gary had such a great smile and that blonde hair. He was a charmer for sure.
