

Geraldine Ruth Malloy

March 2, 1955 - January 14, 2026

Geraldine Ruth Malloy was born in Butte, Montana on March 2nd, 1955. In 1965, she was admitted into Montana Developmental Center where she met her best friend Terry and spent the next 22 years. In 1992, she was then admitted to BSW Lemm Group Home where she lived 26 years. On January 2nd, 2019 Geraldine moved into AWARE Mystic Group Home where she made close friends with Bruce, Wally, and Devin. Finally in 2023, Geraldine moved into the AWARE Porphyry Group Home where she spent the remainder of her days with her best friend since childhood, Terry. Terry and Geraldine loved each other and remained with each other throughout their whole lives until the very end. Geraldine will be missed by so many people she encountered in her life that fell in love with her spicy personality and unique sense of humor. She loved her bucks, old time music, cotsee, and Hersheys that Ed and Darlene (mom & dad) would stock her up with every time they came to see her. She loved visits with mom & dad and knew they would always come with all the goodies for her to enjoy. Of course, her favorite place to go was always Perkins. Her and her housemates enjoyed Perkins often with staff and Terry's family who also loved and adored Geraldine, even though she taught Terry naughty words. There is no way to fill the void Geraldine left behind except with the enormous love we have for her and the fondest of memories. Fly high Geraldine, we will miss you so much.
