

Henry Keith Dawson

June 17, 1960 - May 4, 2024

Henry Keith Dawson passed away Saturday, May 4, 2024 in St. Peter's Hospital in Helena, Montana. He was born in Helena Friday, June 17, 1960 to Henry M. and Letha (Barney) Dawson

Keith had twisted feet when he was born and spent the first six weeks of his life in a cast, then physical therapy for a year and braces on his lower leg and foot. He learned to walk at 21/2 years of age by pushing his little sister in the stroller and wore corrective shoes until he was 12.

He was diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy at three and a half and although his speech was limited, he was able to make his needs know to those who were around him on a daily basis.

He has lived and thrived at the AWARE group home in Anaconda since 1992. He was very happy there and very well cared for. He enjoyed spending birthdays and holidays with his mother and family and loved animals of all kinds. He enjoyed going to the circus and rodeos and watching football on tv. He is preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Letha Dawson and his sisters, Kaylene McKay and Karol Beale. Survivors include his brother-in-law Richard McKay of Lewistown, three nephews, Austin (Char) McKay, Dustin (Arley) McKay and Chad Beal and his aunt June.

Graveside funeral services will be conducted in Sunset Memorial Park Tuesday morning, May 14th at 11 am. Express condolences at www.wayrynen-richards.com. Memorials in memory of Keith may be made to AWARE Inc.
