

Imogene Lyn Montgomery

August 8, 1946 - April 21, 2017

Lyn Montgomery passed away Friday evening in St. James Healthcare surrounded by her loving family. She was born August 8, 1946 in Oneida, New York to Earl H. and Viola R. (Maki) Moberg. She attended schools in New York, graduating high school in Central Square, NY and attended college at Syracuse University where she studied opera. She married John R. Curl in Pocatello, Idaho and together they lived in Dayton, Ohio, Salt Lake City and Butte.

Lynn married Gary Montgomery in Winnemucca, Nevada on July 11, 1997 and together they made their home in Butte. They also wintered in Arizona for several years. Lynn worked as respiratory therapist earlier in her life and at Woolworth and Wal-Mart Stores in Butte. She worked at Wal-Mart for 23 years until her retirement. Lyn was an outgoing person. She was the sweetest and most thoughtful person with a beautiful soul. She took great comfort in hearing about the successes and joys of others. She also loved to travel. Besides her parents, Lyn is preceded in death by her brother, Ron Moberg. Survivors include her husband, Gary Montgomery of Butte, her children and their spouses, Tracy Curl of Bozeman, Carla and Troy Vingom of Coopersburg, PA and John and Linda Curl of Salt Lake City, Gary's son, Justin Saari of Mill City, Or., grandchildren: Sheridan Vingom, Madelyn Vingom, Eric Vingom, John Curl and Travis Saari. She is also survived by her mother-in-law, Josephine Montgomery, Joe and Bonnie Carroll and families, her nieces and nephews and the entire Montgomery family.

And in the end the love you take is equal to the love your make. John Lennon

“ Tracy, Carla and John,
I just read about your mom. I'm so sad she has passed. You know best the loss you will feel. I want you to know how much I love her and appreciate her sense of humor, her unique perspective on life and how much she loved and cared for each of you and your family. It was evident years ago and more recently in her Facebook posts. You are in my prayers and thoughts. She's a wonderful mom. You're been blessed with the best!!!

When I worked at Wal-Mart Lyn was always so happy and such a beautiful smile. Then when I moved to Dillon and started working with her niece whenever I saw her she would how I was and everyone in Dillon. Her smile will surely be missed along with her happy outlook on life. Rest in Peace dear friend.

*To Gary & Lynn's children & grandchildren,
Everyone who knew Lynn LOVED her! Just a wonderful person, inside & out. We were lifelong friends, living in a small village on the North shore of Oneida Lake, NY. Lynn, we will always remember the special times together! You will be missed, our friend; until we meet again.*
