“ Mrs Kindred was a neighbor of my gramma and grandpa in the 60s. Then in later years 80s as I was also working for the federal government, our paths crossed again. I have not seen Jeane since probably 90s....when I came across her once again at the Beehive Home as I was visiting my mom-in-law who was a resident as well. I always remember Jeane as a lady...always well kept and stylish....with a smile on her face. RIP Jeane Kindred. I always admired your spirit. Charlene Conniston Warren

FW “ Dear Karen and Family. Delores and I are missing your mom so much at the BeeHive. Every time I visit sissy, I look for her in the chair by the window. I had so much fun with her. What a fabulous lady!! Our hearts and prayers go out to you and your family. God Bless, Fran Warner and Delores Kangas
