

Judy L. (Cobb) Lawrence

October 1, 1952 - July 12, 2024

Judy L. (Cobb) Lawrence died on Friday, July 12, 2024 at her home in Butte. She had some recent serious health problems, but ultimately could not rebound after the death of her husband Jim in February.

Judy was born October 1, 1952 in Butte to Fred and Ruth Cobb. She was raised with younger sister Mary Jo and attended Butte public schools. After high school graduation, she worked at First National Bank and then began her career with the Butte office of the FBI. She retired on January 16, 2009.

Judy and Jim raised two sons, Jay and Jory Lawrence. She was a very caring person and loved camping with her family and friends and joy rides to Wise River.

Judy is survived by her sons Jay (Mickey) and grandchildren Tanner and Tyler; Jory and grandchildren Rella and Hudson; sister Mary Jo (Rick) Wells, nephew, Ted Wells and niece Hanna (Wells) Smith. She is also survived by her cousin Bob (Pam) Chamberlain, sisters-in-law, Sharon (Jack) Stewart and Pam Shires, and numerous other nieces and nephews. Judy is preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband Jim and the faithful family dog, Moose.

Private entombment of ashes will take place in Mountain View Cemetery. A public celebration of her life will be conducted Wednesday, July 24th at 12 noon at the Butte Country Club. Memorials in memory of Judy may be made to Albert's Angel Fund, 699 Centennial Avenue, butte, MT 59701, a non-profit that helps animals.

“ Oh my gosh I am so very sad tonight to read of Judy's passing. 1974, the FBI, the Deluxe Bar, the Bureau Xmas parties...Judy always there the center of it all!
Jory and Jay, your mom had the kindest heart. She had the cutest lil giggle when we were having our "sodas" on. Friday night. And Mary Jo...I cannot imagine losing my sister yet as well. I'm thinking of you tonight with heartfelt sympathy. 💜
I am so sorry Judy has left us all - but know she was highly thought of by many people.
Hugs to you boys. 💜
