

Karen Lee Blocker

January 4, 1949 - December 4, 2024

Karen Lee Blocker passed away on Wednesday, December 4th, 2024, at Copper Ridge nursing home in Butte, MT.

She was born on January 4th, 1949, in Alaska to Mrytle (Kay) and Leonard Richardson. She graduated high school at Kailua High Kailua Hi, and later earned her CNA in California where she worked many years as a nursing assistant. She married the love of her life Larry Blocker (who had an eight month old son) in 1981 in Woodward, Oklahoma. She helped raise him and was active in his life.

They traveled all over the United States, and enjoyed a second honeymoon in the Caribbean. Karen loved helping others and was always active in church activities. They moved to Bastrop Texas and then off to Sula, Mt. She enjoyed skiing, hiking, and church events with her loving husband.

She is survived by daughter, Deanna Blocker, son -n-law, Brian, two grandchildren, Caitlin Elings and Cameron Stewart, son William Blocker, daughter in-law, Lynn Blocker, and their three boys Kyson, Clayton, and Wyatt. Karen had two brothers survived Bob and Lenny Richardson.

Karen was know for her stubbornness, her contagious laugh, and spicy attitude. In fact, she gained the nickname "Spice Girl" from the wonderful staff at Copper Ridge.

Cremation has taken place.
