In Loving Memory

Of

Kenneth Paul Rowe Jr.

December 11, 1978 – June 13, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Kenneth Paul Rowe Jr., who departed this life peacefully in his sleep on Friday, June 13, 2025, after courageously battling multiple illnesses over the past four years. Though his passing was anticipated, it has left a profound void in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

That evening, as a powerful storm gave way to calm skies, a radiant rainbow stretched across the East Ridge of Butte, Montana—a gentle sign of peace and reassurance for his family, especially his youngest son, who found comfort in knowing his father was now in heaven. Ken is now joyfully reunited with his beloved mother, Sonja; his brother, Clarence; his paternal grandfather; and his father-in-law.

Ken is survived by his devoted wife, Sara Rowe, his loving father, Kenneth Paul Rowe Sr., his children Kenneth Paul Rowe III and Ashlyn Grace Rowe, his stepsons Kyle and Connor Kamin, and his cherished step-granddaughter Alyss Kamin. He also leaves behind a large extended family and many dear friends whose lives he touched deeply.

Ken will be remembered for his quiet strength, unwavering love for his family, and the courage with which he faced life's challenges. Though he may be gone from our sight, we carry him with us always, until the day we meet again.

Ken, you are the absolute sweetest father and a wonderful friend. I loved to watch you with your kiddos. Chatting with you at family functions you always made me feel welcome and included. You are already so missed. Enjoy the golden streets of heaven and keep the chatter going until I get there. Until then buddy. 🧡

We are deeply saddened of Ken's leaving. He fought a battle each day with his health, but that did not stop him from walking his children to school in rain or snow. Bless Ken and all his family. KP and Ashlyn have a special guardian angel now still watching over them.
