

Landon Craig Foley Haight

August 9, 2012 - April 23, 2016

Landon was welcomed into heaven by his guardian angels Saturday April 23, 2016

Landon was born on August 9, 2012 to his loving parents, Christian and Brooks Haight. He was the most beautiful miracle, perfect in every way, and little did he know he was our hero. He knew he was so loved and he knew he was meant to save.

Our precious, perfect, miracle could not have been any more wild and full of life. From day one he was never quiet, sat still, or without a smile. The boy of all boys- motorcycles, dirt, skiing, outdoors, and fishing! Always by his daddy's side on a new adventure. Oh, and don't forget the part that this little man loved his toenails to be painted red! He hated wearing regular clothes, because he only likes basketball shorts and tops, they must make it easier to run around! Landon loved his sister Harlow - he called her "baby", she is without a doubt his baby. He protects her, loves her, helps her get in trouble, hugs her, kisses her, plays dollies with her, and he is always her biggest fan! His smile and laugh are so infectious, he lights up a room! He melts his mommy's heart every second, as he says "I need another kiss mom!" or "Put your arm around me and hold me". He is a perfect combination of Brooks and Paul- Always telling jokes, pulling a prank, and jumping out to scare you! Landon so loved his best friends at Daycare with Taryn Yelenich- whom he loved and adored so much, and enjoyed his pre-school class at the Crayon Academy.
