

Lloyd Franklin "Pete" Cooper

September 4, 1929 - May 22, 2024

Lloyd Franklin "Pete" Cooper passed away Wednesday, May 22, 2024 at the Continental Care and Rehab Center in Butte. Pete was born at home in Fishtail, Montana on Wednesday, September 4, 1929 to Homer and Laura Cooper. His early years were spent helping on the farm. He served a brief stint in the US Army and was stationed in Hawaii during his time of service. He married Adeline Hawks in 1961 and they had two sons. During his lifetime he worked in logging and mining. He later resided in Missoula and for the last twenty-five years has lived in Drummond.

Pete loved to play pinochle and cribbage in his spare time. He was quick to tell you that he was 94 on 9/4 last summer.

He is preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, John and Sam, a sister, Betty Jo and his son, Michael. Survivors include his sister Clara of Cody, one son, Gene of Missoula, five grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Cremation has taken place in Butte. A reception to celebrate Pete's life will be planned for this summer.
