

Loren Ross Quilliam

May 28, 1950 - May 14, 2024

Loren Quilliam, age 73, a beloved figure of Butte MT, sadly left our world Wednesday May 15, after a life richly lived in service and kindness. Known for all his time and devotion given to the school of Whittier, the church, and community of Butte. Loren Quilliam was a beacon of light and hope in our community, touching lives through tutoring children, serving the church, and several other volunteer work through the community.

He devoted his time to the mining world at the Concentrator in Butte, Elko in Nevada and Reddog in Alaska, where he retired. He lived 14 years in Anchorage Alaska where his 2 younger children grew up before retiring back to Butte where he began. He loved his grandchildren and all those that he tutored and encountered over the years.

Preceded in death by his wife Letita Quilliam, parents Alfred and Cleo Quilliam, mother-in-law Betty Mealey and many more. Leaving a legacy through his 3 children; Ross, Kyle, and Julie, his 5 grandchildren; Kaleb, Eli, Oliver, Titan, and baby girl coming August, his sister Sheila and Binky Dewitt, brother in laws; Harold Houser, Monty Houser, Steve Crippen Gene and Bobby Mealey, sister in law Roxanne and John Troglia and numerous great nieces and nephews and nieces and nephews. Loren Quilliam's memory will be a guiding star for all who knew them.

In remembrance, a gathering will take place on July 6th at Butte Brewery followed by a nightcap at the Scandia, where we will honor Loren Quilliam's enduring impact on our community and hearts. In lieu of flowers or additional offerings, please donate time or money to your local community or donor of choice.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Loren's passing. I have known him since the 4th grade when we attended Grant school. He was a quiet and sweet person. I am saddened he will not be around for our next Eastside reunion.

“ I was shocked and saddened at word of Loren's passing. He was such a kind person that I first got to know when we both attended Grant Grade School together. He will be missed.
