“ Rest in Peace, Pat. I have fond memories of you and I and a few other monkeys storming down the ski slopes, at Z-T, when we were young teens. We could ski hard all day and never get tired.

This makes me very sad Jacque, Lori and Mike. Pat was in my mother's Cub Scout troop, so Jan and I got to know him a little bit. I have thought of him many times over the years. I pray Pat is at peace and skating away. Maybe he will see Jan? I like imagining this ❤️

“ To Jackie, Lori, and Mike,
So sad to learn of Pat's passing. We were recently talking fondly about your family and all the fun times we shared with all of you. As a young man Pat was a fabulous skater and athlete. Very sorry for your loss and would love to see any of you if in town. Love you all.
