

Robert Eugene Hoffman Jr.

September 6, 1962 - November 3, 2020

Robert Eugene "Bob" Hoffman Jr. Passed away November 3rd in St James Healthcare following a house fire, may he rest in peace.

Bob, my dad, was born in Casper, Wyoming on September 6th, 1962 to Robert E Hoffman and Barbara (Brown) Hoffman.

Bob attended Butte schools and later learned the trade of sales. He could sell you just about anything with his quick wit and professional personality and the love he had for people.

Our dad met our mom Marcia Maddux and had us three children, Kayla Hoffman, Zach Hoffman, Madison Hoffman.

Dad loved all of us with all of his heart, you could see us riding bikes, fishing, gardening, and always just spending time with each other.

I know that all who ran into Bob would leave with either a smile or laughing.

Our dad leaves behind not only his children but his grandchildren of his oldest daughter Kayla, Isabella, Victoria, and Grandson Isaiah.

Our dad is preceded in death with his parents, his grandparents Ernest and Thelma Hoffman, cousin George Johnson, cousin David Hanson, cousin Sonja Johnson.

Cremation has taken place. A celebration of life will be planned in Spring of 2021 please contact immediate family for details.

“ Just a few thoughts of the old day,
We used to run with Bob when we were kids, Myself, Joel A, Bruce S, Andy R, John B. We would hang around the old bus stop in Butte riding bikes raiding gardens, Hookybobbin cars from the corner of Silver and Excelsior,
We would also throw snowballs, apples or pears, what ever was in season at cars... I'm surprised somebody didn't kill us for that.

I remember Bob lived on Broadway I think was the street name, I can remember the house. We would sneak on to the trolley and ride it to the museum and the driver would kick us off at the museum so we would have to walk home.

Bob was by far the funniest guy I knew back when we were kids. Always had us laughing then we grew up and those days left us and we all went our separate ways, we lost track for many years but periodically we would run in to each other. The last time was in Airway heights Washington. We had breakfast, visited for about an hour or so. It was nice to see him. Since then only heard about him in various places. Last was Butte, I would see a clipping from a Butte news paper every now and then. Had to laugh a time or two. He's done some funny stuff over the years. I'm sad to hear the news my old friend. You left this earth way to soon, but now you have peace, no longer fighting the dragon. So long my friend I miss the old days but someday Bob, may we meet again in Christ.
