“ Just today I was scanning obituaries from Butte, USA. I was the Safety Guy at Montana Tunnels Mine for 18 years and a finer, more giving gentleman I haven't met. Bondo painted my sons first snow board and then became the go to guy to specialize hard hats for myself to begin with, then for numerous others. You could spot Bondos' work from across the ready line. I've still got my American Flag Hard Hat hanging in my garage and I'm proud to tell anyone who asks about it that Bondo painted it for me. Really sorry to read of his passing. My condolences to your whole family, Mike Rocchio
