

Robert Clayton Lazzari

June 6, 1992 - January 26, 2016

Death does not always come with warning and with time to say the sad farewells. Sometimes it comes unannounced with no time for even a brief goodbye. Robert Clayton “Boo Boo” Lazzari, 23 of Butte unexpectedly left his earthly body on January 26, 2016 to fly high with the angels.

A beautiful bright light appeared when he was born in Butte, June 6, 1992, the first son, and third of six children. He grew up in Helena, Montana attending Four Georgians and Bryant Elementary School and Helena High School. He was currently working at McDonalds as a swing manager.

Robbie was a very kind, caring, passionate, quiet gently soul. He was always a good listener, especially with his four sisters. He never judged anybody, ever! Robbie’s love for his mom was undeniably obvious, he was a genuine “Momma’s Boy”. He enjoyed long walks and outings with his dad. He also loved spending time with his siblings, family and his close circle of friends. Robbie loved the Philadelphia Eagles, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, Vitamin Water-Triple X and milk. He really enjoyed playing John Madden Football, watching Workaholics, listening to heavy metal and playing his guitar. He had a huge disliking for the Dallas Cowboys. Robbie didn’t ever say much, but that made you value his words ever more.

Robbie is survived by his mother and step-father, Mary and Edward Dinius Jr., father, Daniel Robert Lazzari, all of Butte, sisters, Danelle (Matt), Nikol Lazzari, Shayna and Alexandra and brother, Maximus Baker, all of Butte, maternal grandfather, Robert Azure Sr., nieces, Reja and Maria, nephews,

Ezekiel, Lazarus and Samuel and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins who all dearly loved him. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Edward and Angelina Lazzari and Helen Ramona Azure.

Memorials are suggested to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

“ Robbie was a friend of mine I can never forget. At first, he seemed like a normal work buddy, but we became good friends as time went on. We would go on drives, chill at my place or at his mom's basement, help each other out at work, it really grew. Hell, he even got me a birthday present which took me by surprise. Whether it was bashing on the Cowboys or making stupid jokes, I'll miss this guy and keep him in my heart forever. Rest easy.

“Robbie Clayton Lazzari will forever have my heart. He is the love of my life and he always will be. We did everything together! Went camping alot, alot of long car rides, played with our dogs all the time and went for so many runs! We even worked together, it's where we first met almost 3 years ago. He never minded me gaming for hours on end, even when we only had one contoller! Or taking literally hundreds of pictures of us. Robbie is the kindest person I've ever met. I will always be madly inlove with this amazing man?

Rest Well My Love?
