

Roseanne Barbara Dooling

April 30, 1941 - December 24, 2018

Roseanne Barbara Dooling passed away Christmas Eve, December 24, 2018 in a local hospital. She was born in Butte Wednesday, April 30, 1941 to William and Joann (Smith) Steyh. She attended local schools as well as Montana State University and the College of Technology. Roseanne worked on a ranch for many years and wrangled horses. She was an accomplished writer with several manuscripts and wrote beautiful poetry, some of which was registered and awarded.

She was devoted to serving her beloved Lord, Jesus and gave tirelessly to her family and friends, even when her health failed, she still found the strength to serve.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Tom and Terry Dooling of Jackson, Montana

She will be greatly missed by many who now take comfort knowing she is out of pain and rejoicing in the presence of the Lord.

“We are confident and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. 2nd Corinthians 5:8”
