“ Sandy was a loving and kind person. She loved to walk and we took many walks together. She was a good organizer too. When my birthday came up she called the ladies in Relief Society and put together a Pizza Hut party just like that. She talked often and lovingly about her sons Chad and Clark. Sandy is already with her Lord and Savior. I will miss you and our phone conversations since she moved to Butte.

In the past 17 years years I have known Sandy she has suffered physically and mentally. She tried so hard to keep moving forward along the path to Heavenly Father.
I am so impressed with her talent of writing and have received some of her creative work.
She changed my life as I came to know her and love her. I am so grateful she isn't suffering any more and I look forward to the day when I shall see her again ❤️
