

Sharon L. Higginbotham Simon

May 15, 1940 - February 13, 2021

Sharon L. Higginbotham Simon, born May 15, 1940, passed away quietly at home February 13, 2021. She was the daughter of Samuel and Pearl Higginbotham of Anaconda, Montana. It was there she and her brother Fred were raised. It was during her high school years she met her husband to be, John E. Simon. After her high school graduation, they married in July 1958 and later moved to Butte to raise their children.

Sharon was the office manager of the family owned sign painting business, Superior Signs. After her husband's retirement, she enjoyed working at Baskin-Robbins and later at Wal-Mart where she explored the work processes of many departments.

Sharon loved reading, playing card games, dancing, hiking, snow skiing, fishing, boating, and camping with family and friends.

She is survived by: her husband John, her daughter Leslie D'Arezzo and son-in-law Sam Marcus of Montana, her son Kevin Simon and daughter-in-law Stephanie Simon, and grandchildren Kaitlyn and Alec Simon of Florida.

Cremation has taken place. No services are scheduled at this time.

“ So sorry for your loss and how things have been lately. We always enjoyed visiting, but Sharon was a pretty private person and never asked for anything. When we did visit she had the greatest laugh. We would stop if we were driving by and she was outside and visit for awhile or in a grocery aisle and stop traffic in both places. She will be missed. Hope you kids are getting along as well as you can. It is so hard.
