

Sue Frances "Suzy" Vance

November 28, 1953 - September 18, 2025

Sue "Suzy" Frances Vance, age 71, passed away peacefully at the Crest Nursing Home in Butte, Montana on Thursday, September 18, 2025 of natural causes.

Sue was born in Boise, Idaho on Saturday, November 28, 1953. Her parents, Harold and Frances Hauser were delighted to have sue as their first child. Sue was joined by a younger sister Lori four years later. Sue grew up in Boise and graduated from Borah High School in 1971. She continued her education to become a nurse's assistant. After graduation she married Harley Miller and they had two sons, Justin and Joshua. Sue enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She always loved cooking and everything she made was delicious. Sue's mom was a great cook also, so they enjoyed being in the kitchen together.

Sue was also a very talented pianist. She played for churches, schools and community events.

Sue is survived by her sister Lori Shaw, sons Justin and Joshua Miller and several cousins in Oregon, Washington and southern Idaho. Sue was preceded in death by her parents, Harold and Frances Hauser.

Sue will be greatly missed by family and friends she made at the Crest Nursing Home including her special friend, Mike who was dear to her heart. Cremation has taken place and funeral arrangements are entrusted to Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home.
