

Theo Ann McEvoy

December 8, 1933 - March 20, 2018

Theo Ann McEvoy passed away quietly in her sleep on Tuesday, March 20, 2018 at her home in Butte. She was born in Butte December 8, 1933 to Clarence Andrew and Caroline (Fellows) Babcock. She attended local schools including Butte High School. Theo Ann worked at Leon and Eddies Drive-In on Harrison Avenue and on July 25, 1950 she and John McEvoy were married in Butte. She received her GED later in life with her husband John.

They lived in Yuba City, California for many years where she worked as a realtor for Caldwell-Banker. They returned to Butte in 1990 and were active members of the Butte First Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Theo Ann was a member of the Ladies Relief Society, enjoyed golfing and bowling in her younger days and her and John were avid pinochle players.

She is survived by her husband John McEvoy of Butte, sons and daughters-in-law, James and Karen McEvoy of Alpine, Utah, John McEvoy of Auburn, California, Michael and Emily McEvoy of Chico, California, daughter and son-in-law, Caroline and Dennis Jennison of Butte, 16 grandchildren, 22 Great-grandchildren, sister-in-law, Mary Gulick of Anderson, California and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She is preceded in death by her brother, James M. Babcock and her son, Clarence A. McEvoy.
