

Tommy Don Urbina

May 20, 1957 - November 24, 2016

Tom D. Urbina, 59, of Butte, Montana died at 2:45 a.m. Thursday, November 24th, 2016 after a five year battle with cancer.

Tom was born May 20th, 1957 in Fallon, Nevada. Tom moved to Montana in 1995 after a short vacation here as he fell in love with Montana's natural beauty. Tom worked as a press operator for many print companies in Montana and as a maintenance worker. Tom was an avid outdoorsman and loved to camp, hunt and fish. Tom spent countless days and hours floating and fishing the Big Blackfoot River and camping at River Junction but his favorite place to camp and fish was on the Little Prickly Pear Creek near Wolf Creek, Montana. More than anything, Tom enjoyed spending time with his son Dominick. They enjoyed many years of camping, fishing and hunting together. Tom also loved watching his son play football and never missed a game. Tom will sincerely be missed by many.

Tom is survived by his son Dominick Lee Dowell Urbina of Butte, two other children, his brother, Steven Urbina of Arizona, his sisters, Barbara Willman and Rose Urbina both of Arizona. He is preceded in death by his parents, Tom and Emma Urbina of Fallon, Nevada. In celebration of Tom's life there will be a reception at Crazy Carol's, Saturday, December 3rd from 2 to 5 PM.
