“ Wayne was always a great nephew and a great friend. We remember him fondly throughout his childhood. He was a great son and cared for his Mom and Dad selflessly. When ever we came to visit out of town he was always there taking care of Mom and Dad. We will miss Wayne and our prayers are with Rod. God Bless.

“ Wayne has always been so thoughtful and kind kind. With Elaine and I staying at Cheryl's cabin at Georgetown Lake, it was no surprise to drop in at Wayne's cabin. Wayne was an awesome cook and always made enough for visitors, and we enjoyed it immensely. He will be missed. So sorry Rod, Tom, and Lori and family

I will miss Wayne very much, his hospitality, his laugh, our conversations and knowing he was at the lake if my boat had issues. The time we spent together was something I always looked forward to, whether it was at the lake or a family gathering. Loved him!

Wayne was a special, kind person. He surely will be missed. He took good care of Frank and Rose and is now with them again, although I'm sure they didn't expect him this soon. He was loved and will be missed.
